Definition of New Jersey Bred

A New Jersey Bred horse is:

a) Any foal dropped in the state of New Jersey, except for the foals of transient mares. A mare will be considered to be a transient mare if she does not reside in the State of New Jersey for at least 120 consecutive days including the day of foaling. The owner of a mare may be asked to submit proof of such residence to the individual bred groups;

b)Any foal resulting from an embryo transfer from a mare who resides 120 cumulative days in the State of New Jersey, providing blood typing of the mare, stallion, and foal carried out to authenticate parentage. A mare must donate only in New Jersey, an embryo transfer is agreeable to the national registry of the breed;

d)Foals resulting from transport of semen from a stallion standing the full season in the State of New Jersey, will be considered a New Jersey Bred, providing blood typing of the stallion, mare, and foal is carried out to authenticate parentage and semen transport is agreeable to the national registry of the breed.
